DETAILED ACTION

Election Without Traverse:

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, Claims 1-3, 5-7, 8-10, 12-14, 15 and 18 on 2/9/06 is acknowledged.

Single Means Claims:

2. Claims 15 and 18 are single means claims, for example, where a means (a control unit) recitation does not appear in combination with another recited element of means, is subject to an undue breadth rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph. In re Hyatt, 708 F.2d 712, 714-715, 218 USPQ 195, 197 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (A single means claim which covered every conceivable means for achieving the stated purpose was held nonenabling for the scope of the claim because the specification disclosed at most only those means known to the inventor). When claims depend on a recited property, a fact situation comparable to Hyatt is possible, where the claim covers every conceivable structure (means) for achieving the stated property (result) while the specification discloses at most only those known to the inventor. (See MPEP 2164.08).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2138

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 1-3, 5-10, 12-15 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the applicant admitted prior art (AAPA) in view of Chen (6,330,462).

As per claim 1, the AAPA discloses a error rate control apparatus, comprising:

a control signal error rate computation unit computing an error rate of the control signal; and A power variable unit transmitting the control signal after increasing the transmission power based on a value of the error rate (paragraph (0026)). The AAPA does not disclose that changing transmission power of the control signal based on a value of the error rate. However, Chen discloses changing transmission power of the control signal based on a value of the error rate (col. 9, line 63 to col. 10, line 54). Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to incorporate the changing transmission power of the control signal based on a value of the error rate as taught by Chen into the changing power unit of the AAPA to change the transmission power of the control signal based on the error rate so that less power is wasted by sending the data with excess power without estimating channel conditions, and data loss by transmitting the data with insufficient power is minimize. (See Chen col. 14, lines24-28).

As per claims 2-3 and 5-7, the AAPA further discloses wherein the communication system is a W-CDMA system (paragraph (0006), and wherein the control signal is a TFCI, a PILOT, or a TPC in a signal format of a W-CDMA system (paragraph (0024)-(0025)).

As per claim 8, this claim is rejected under similar rationale as set forth in claim 1.

As per claims 9-10 and 12-14, these claims are rejected under similar rationale as set forth in claims 2-3 and 5-7.

As per claims 15 and 18, these claims are rejected under similar rationale as set forth in claims 1 and 8.

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-3, 5-10, 12-15 and 18 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Phung My Chung whose telephone number is 571-272-3818. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday.
